Template for Your AiM25 Poster-Abstract

Title of contribution

Authors of contribution

Institution(s) of contribution authors (same order as authors)

Abstract

Background

Theoretical background/ objectives/ introduction and research question
(Theoretical approach, state of research, relevance, problem reference, hypotheses or open question)

Method / approach, methods, material
(Description of methods depending on the type of contribution submitted; the contribution may be an empirical or theoretical study or a practical project)

Results
(If applicable for practical projects; for empirical or theoretical studies: Presentation, summary, analysis, quality criteria)

Conclusions / discussion
(Relevance of the results, generalizability; in the case of empirical studies, additional reference to hypotheses or research question, quality criteria)

Sources / literature
(Maximum of six sources (!); please use the current APA style for publications)

Procedure: After you have submitted your contribution, it will be reviewed by reviewers. You will receive their feedback via the website, as well as any questions, suggestions for changes or suggestions for corrections.

After you have received the information that your contribution has been accepted:

– Please have your poster printed in DINA0 format and portrait.
– Please bring your finished poster to the conference.